

it must surely
 re to doom.
 th fire, and now
 about being to war without excuses, and in
 of a time bomb
 ars, to destroy
 ne. ed the art of
 to support its ll be hard put recriminations
 when the ad-
 day comes.
 hat so long as he wing of the d never have to He thought he rd with a fait Abyssinia, that ons superfluous.
 s-psychosis has
 every reason to
 owed themselves
 ict with Britain,
 never had any
 olini has gamb-
 and gambled
 ew Roman em-
 eld it fast, but own it away.
 t of Libya, and
 ar turns unex-
 driven out of
 has given his accomplish this could not have

BEN BOWYANG

Ex-Premier For India Important Job

SYDNEY, Friday.—Sir Bertram Stevens, former Premier of New South Wales, has been appointed Australian representative on a new Empire Supply Commission in India.

He will leave for Delhi with a small staff of experts, almost at once. Salary and other conditions of Sir Bertram Stevens' appointment have not been disclosed.

The functions of the new authority will be to co-ordinate the whole sphere of Empire war supplies. An extensive survey of the supply and productive capacity of the various parts of the Empire, begun by the Delhi conference, will be kept up to date by the new standing Commission.

The Commission will determine what classes of materials each country is best able to supply with a minimum of expense and manpower

League Cr For To

Close Match

Following the success of North those three teams should provide League cricket games. In the m High the Railies may be success High scoring was a feature of that there will be some bright

St. Peter's will probably have their captain (M. Austen Brown) back with them tomorrow. They have named several players, including some juniors. Their greatest strength will probably be the bowling combination of Brown, worth, Lewis, and Arnold. Fred Coles will be available again, and he can strike his batting form. Previous games may aid in this decision.

Fri 24 Jan 1941 - Barrier Miner (Broken Hill, NSW : 1888 - 1954)

Page 2 - Ex-Premier For India

Ex-Premier

For India

Important Job

⊞⊞⊞⊞

SYDNEY, Friday.—Sir Bertram Stevens, former Premier of New South Wales, has been appointed Australian representative on a new Empire Supply Commission in India.

He will leave for Delhi with a small staff of experts, almost at once. Salary and other conditions of Sir Bertram Stevens' appointment have not been disclosed.

The functions of the new authority will be to co-ordinate the whole sphere of Empire war supplies. An extensive survey of the supply and productive capacity of the various parts of the Empire, begun by the Delhi conference, will be kept up to date by the new standing Commission.

The Commission will determine what classes of materials each country is best able to supply with a minimum of expense and manpower effort,

It was stated in ? high Federal Government quarters today that, as a result of the new move, Australia would become more than ever one of the chief arsenals of the Empire.

'POLITICAL APPOINTMENT

. SYDNEY. Friday.-The deputy leader of the Federal Opposition (Mr. Forde) described the selection of ' Sir-Bertram Stevens as Australian representative of the British Purchasing Commission at Delhi as a "political appointment." .He added that it was quite obvious that the best qualification to earn a highly placed appointment from the Menzies Government was to be a defeated U.A.P. leader._